

Meet the Experts:

PEARL LEIBOVITCH ROOTS AND BRANCHES
CONFERENCE SPEAKER SPOTLIGHTS

Corinna Jenkins Tucker, Ph.D., CFLE

is a trailblazer in the field of sibling dynamics and family relationships. As the Director of the Sibling Aggression and Abuse Research and Advocacy Initiative (SAARA) at the Crimes against Children Research Center and Professor Emerita in Human Development and Family Studies at the University of New Hampshire, Dr. Tucker has devoted over 25 years to exploring the complex world of sibling interactions. Her groundbreaking research has shed light on the often-hidden aspects of sibling aggression and abuse, offering fresh perspectives and practical solutions that resonate with families and professionals alike.

Tanya Rouleau Whitworth, Ph.D.

is a pioneering Research Scientist at the Sibling Aggression and Abuse Research and Advocacy Initiative (SAARA) within the Crimes against Children Research Center, University of New Hampshire. With a passion for uncovering the nuances of family dynamics, Dr. Whitworth's work spans critical areas such as mental health, sexuality, and the well-being of children and adolescents. Her cutting-edge research focuses on the sensitive and vital topic of sibling sexual abuse, as well as the barriers to help-seeking for sibling aggression and abuse, providing invaluable insights that challenge conventional thinking and inspire change.

