ProMontreal Entrepreneurs announces its most recent winners

New PME fund deadline for the fall 2015 edition is October 19 at 4:00 pm

Montreal, September 9, 2015 - ProMontreal Entrepreneurs (PME) is thrilled to announce its funding via the PME fund of 3 new start-ups: Revolvs, Main and Local, and Tryb. Through the PME Fund, aspiring Jewish entrepreneurs between the ages of 18-40 can access start-up capital of up to $50,000.

Revolvs produces quick-fitting Bluetooth earphones. They are able to mold to your ear in a matter of seconds, provide superior sound and noise isolation and everything is controlled by a free mobile app!

Main and Local (ML) is a city gift store that celebrates great cities around the world. ML offers a wide range of original and highly engaging gifts, souvenirs and novelty items that connect with locals and tourists alike.

Tryb is a mobile team management platform for competitive e-sports gamers. Tryb exists to solve problems while providing extra value to the users. Team Building - Build the best team within 24 hours and save that month of searching for practicing. Team Management - Better accommodate different schedules and time zones with your team.

"Being surrounded by young Montreal talent that is able to see opportunity, use their creativity and work hard to make their dreams happen is incredibly rewarding," said PME Program Manager, Katherine Korakakis. "They are innovative start-ups that will take the world by storm, I am certain of it. "

ProMontreal Entrepreneurs is accepting applications for the fall 2015 edition of the PME Fund. The submission deadline is October 19, 2015 at 4:00 pm.
